

THE INVENTED TRADITIONS OF THE POSTMODERNITY RISING IN POLAND
by Dorota Angutek

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

Objectives, theses and problems addressed in the book .....	9
Region and locality .....	14
The features of the culture of the forming Postmodernity .....	17
Problems concerning the notion of tradition .....	22
Theoretical and methodological foundations of the book ....	26
The distribution of the contents .....	27

Part One

GENESIS AND DESCRIPTION OF THE SELECTED INSTANCES OF THE WORKED OUT TRADITIONS IN POLAND

I. Criteria of how the worked out traditions can be ordered and described .....	29
II. The instances of the conventional traditions .....	36
1. Krajna's worked out embroidery tradition .....	36
2. The traditions worked out in the cult of St Urban in Zielona Góra and of St Valentine in Chełmno .....	60
III. The quasi-conventional traditions in the Middle Pomerania, Lower Silesia and Lubuskie Voivodship .....	70
1. An instance of the Village Administrators Circle of National Assembly of Village Women in Niekłonice .....	70
2. Other instances of the quasi-conventional tradition .....	76
IV. The worked out post-conventional (avant-garde) traditions ...	84
1. The tourism tradition in Klimczok .....	84
2. Other instances of the post-conventional tradition .....	92
V. An instance of the trans-conventional tradition: the worked out bacchanal tradition in Zielona Góra .....	97

Part Two

THE ANALYSIS OF THE MARKS OF THE TRADITION UNDERSTOOD
AS A RESEARCH CATEGORY

I. The problem how to define and classify the phenomena of the existing tradition .....	115
II. Phenomenon of tradition seized in objective terms .....	119

TABLE OF CONTENTS

III. Phenomenon of tradition and the integral (primitive) traditionalism seized in subjective terms .....	123
1. The problem of how the traditional cultures can be researched historically in subjective terms .....	123
2. The objectively seized marks of the subjective approach to the notion of tradition and the primitive traditionalism in social sciences .....	132
IV. Traditionalism in the era of Modernity and the rising Postmodernity .....	145
1. Tradition versus Modernity .....	145
2. The ideological traditionalism and folklorism in Modernity .....	152
3. The compulsive traditionalism and post-folklorism in the era of the rising Postmodernity .....	161
V. Eric Hobsbawm's identification of the phenomenon of the invention of tradition .....	165
VI. The analysis of the objective and subjective marks of the worked out traditions — a summary specification .....	175
Part Three .....	152
CONCEPTS OF THE BONDS AND SOCIAL INTEGRATION IN THE CONTEXT OF CULTURE HISTORICAL TRANSFORMATIONS
I. The concepts of: bond, relation, mimesis and social integration ...	181
II. Concepts of the historical types of social integration .....	186
1. Emil Durkheim's concept of mechanical solidarity in the traditional European culture .....	186
2. Emil Durkheim's concept of organic solidarity .....	189
III. David Riesman's concept of the types of social controllability ...	194
IV. Margaret Mead's concept of the cultural patterns of the generational identity .....	205
V. Anna Paľubicka's concept of the consensual solidarity. Basil Bernstein's concept of the organic personalized solidarity ....	217
VI. The demise of the symbolic culture in the era of Modernity and Postmodernity .....	221
1. Ewa Kobylińska's concept of the symbol effacement in the Postmodernity culture .....	221
2. Jean Baudrillard's identification of the cultural reduction of the symbol to simulacra .....	227

TABLE OF CONTENTS

VII. The consequences of the disintegration of the social bonds versus reintegration of the societies in the rising Postmodernity .....	230
1. Anthony Giddens' identification of the features of individuals in the Late Postmodernity .....	230
2. Michel Maffesol's concept of the modern tribalism .....	237
3. Tomasz Szlendak's and Krzysztof Olechnicki's concept of the culture sub-worlds .....	243
4. Michel de Certeau's concept of the culture micro-processes .....	248
 Part Four
THE CHARACTERISTICS OF THE WORKED OUT TRADITIONS IN POLAND AGAINST THE BACKGROUND OF THE MARKS OF THE EXISTING TRADITIONS AND THE POSTMODERN CULTURE — AN OVERALL ANALYSIS
I. The spontaneous and symbolic values and functions in the context of the locality of the worked out communities .....	255
II. Processuality and contingency of the worked out traditions ...	271
III. The authenticity of the worked out traditions and the ontological security .....	273
IV. The relations of the worked out communities to the formalized social structures and institutions .....	275
CONCLUSION .....	279
Literature cited .....	283
Index of Names .....	303
Invented traditions of the Postmodernity rising in Poland — Summary (transl. by P. Cyciura) .....	313
Table of contents .....	317