

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Tomasz Nakoneczny, Power and Culture — Foreword	7
Andrzej de Lazari, „ The Tsar of Russian Dreams ” (The Image of Vladimir Putin in the Works of Victor Yerofeyev and Sergei Jolkin)	15
Halina Rarot, The Perception of Power in Modern Russian Philosophy on the Example of Works by Valentina G. Fedotova	25
Marian Broda, Yuri Afanasyev: “ Deep History ” and “ Historical Truth ” of the Self-Presentation of the Russian Sources	39
Marek Jedliński, Around the Authority and Tradition — the Russian Philosophy Traditionalism in Historical Horizon	55
Piotr Paweł Repczyński, Violence — a Metaphor of Power, Power — a Metaphor of Violence	69
Marcin Składanowski, Religious Ideas at the Sources of Russian Concepts of Power	81
Magda Dolińska-Rydzek, Andrei Sakharov’s Dialogue with the Authorities of 1986–1989	93
Bartosz Gołąbek, Andrei Sakharov’s Dialogue with the Authorities of 1986–1989	103
Aldona Borkowska, Viktor Astaf’ev — Writer and Authority	115
Ewa Kozak, The Image of the Russian Authority Pictured in ‘Short Stories’ by Dmitry Glukhovsky	129
Anna Stryjakowska, Encyclopedia of the Russian soul of Victor Erofeev to the Power of the National Autostereotype	141
Bartłomiej Kopczacki, Politics and Power according to Zakhar Prilepin	155
Andrzej Polak, The Power as Depicted in Vladimir Sorokin’s duology An Oprichnik’s Day, The Sugar Kremlin	165
Tomasz Nakoneczny, Victor Pelevin — between Imperialism and Postmodernism. An Attempt at Postcolonial Reading	181
Notes on Contributors	197